

Library Training

MUI-plus, in collaboration with LSHTM, is pleased to announce an upcoming library training

Venue: Training Building - Uganda Virus Research Institute (UVRI), Entebbe

Date: 23rd to 26th October, 2017

An intensive 3 day course covering;

Day 1

- Foundations of information skills
- 6-steps to an effective literature search

Day 2

- Transferring searches from one database to another
- EndNote

Day 3

- Systematic Review literature searching
- 1-2-1 appointments for systematic reviewers

This training is suited to PhD students, Junior and Senior Researchers

Facilitators:

Jane Falconer is a qualified Librarian and has been working in UK medical libraries for 20 years. She leads the library training team at LSHTM, responsible for delivering and designing information literacy skills teaching for school staff and students. She has also supported multiple systematic reviewers with their literature search and has compiled and run literature searches for a number of high level reviews including the Lancet Commission on Planetary Health Report and the WHO Guidelines on Hepatitis B and C testing.

Kim Coles is a qualified Librarian, and has been working in academic libraries for 7 years. She is an Assistant Librarian at LSHTM Library and Archives Service, responsible for delivering and designing information skills teaching for School students, staff, and researchers based in London and overseas.

Deadline for receipt of applications is Friday, September 29th, 2017

To apply, please see attached application form

You can also visit our website

www.muui.org.ug